

Visit Rochester

VISITOR IMPACT FOR 2007 WAS MORE THAN $965 MILLION IN MONROE COUNTY

Hundreds of Thousands will use the VisitRochester's Visitor Guide to decide where to dine, shop and play during their visit. Local Rochestarians use this as their local reference guide.

Lilac Festival. This is the event that brings Rochester to life! Come celebrate the beauty and splendor of more than 1,200 fragrant lilacs in Highland Park. For a complete event schedule check us out on the web at www.lilacfestival.com. Free.
Map C, J-15.

Basic Listing

Member	Non-Member
$430	$535

Goose Watch Winery. Enjoy one of the best views on Cayuga Lake while sampling the region's most unique selection of premium wines in our elegant tasting room. Choose from Pinot Grigio, Traminette, Viognier, Merlot and White Port to name a few. Then try some of our farm-raised chestnuts (in season). Picnic area and boat docking available. Open daily all year round from 10:00 – 6:00 p.m. Great winery events including Strawberry Festival & Chestnut Festival! Visit our website at www.goosewatch.com, or call (315) 549-2599. Located at 5480 Route 89, Romulus, N.Y. 14541.
Map B, W-4.

Enhanced Listing

Member	Non-Member
$620	$770

38th Annual Corn Hill Arts Festival.

Sponsored by the Corn Hill Neighbors Association. This nationally renowned arts festival is located in the historic Corn Hill district of Rochester. Each year, over a quarter million Rochesterians and Western New Yorkers converge upon this city neighborhood for the annual Corn Hill Arts Festival. The juried art show includes over 450 fine artists and crafters, street and stage performances, children's activities and an array of traditional and ethnic foods. FREE ADMISSION! July 8 and 9, 2006. 133 South Fitzhugh Street. For more information, call (585) 262-3142. www.cornhill.org. Map A, D-5,6; E-5,6.

Enhanced Listing w/photo

Member	Non-Member
$765	$960

Publishes: Deadline:
May 2009 Fri., April 10

*DID YOU KNOW?

87% of Rochester-area adults read the Democrat and Chronicle every week online and in print!

Source: 2008 Custom Scarborough Research

visit Rochester

Democrat and Chronicle
Democrat AND Chronicle.com